Ho bisogno del mare
perché mi insegna
P. Neruda

CONOSCERE IL MARE
Ocean Literacy Italia

per il

World Oceans Day

UNESCO
United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization
Regional Bureau for Science and Culture in Europe
Intergovernmental Oceanographic Commission

UNESCO
United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization
Under the patronage of Italian National Commission for UNESCO
Con il patrocinio della Commissione Nazionale Italiana per l'UNESCO

JUNE 8 2017

Discovering applications and new technologies for sea situational awareness

4 online tools for the sea situational awareness are presented. For each service, the session includes a first part with a web tutorial and a second part with open discussion. Presented services make use of data from CMEMS (Copernicus Marine Environment Monitoring Service, marine.copernicus.eu)

Web meeting free access @:

https://cmccscarl.webex.com/cmccscarl/j.php?MTID=m1a848bb632e609770d5b74c722975423

Sessions 1 and 5: 14:00|14:30 and 17:00|17:30 (Rome time)
SeaConditions: www.sea-conditions.com
A service providing ocean and weather forecasts in the Mediterranea Sea

Session 2: 14:45|15:15 (Rome time)
Visir: www.visir-nav.com
A service providing optimized nautical routes in the Mediterranean Sea

Session 3: 15:30|16:00 (Rome time)
OceanSar: www.ocean-sar.com
A service providing support to maritime authorities and operational centres during search-and-rescue operations

Session 4: 16:15|16:45 (Rome time)
Witoil: www.witoil.com
A service for the prediction of transport and transformation of oil spills in the Mediterranean Sea

In collaboration with:

cmcc
Centro Euro-Mediterraneo sui Cambiamenti Climatici

Links
MANAGEMENT & TECHNOLOGY

SCAN ME

Cerca le altre iniziative Ocean Literacy Italia