

CHIARA TROZZO

Humanitarian and development professional

PROFILE

Italian humanitarian and development professional with almost five years of experience in project management, resource mobilization and donor relations, especially in Resilience and Adaptation to climate change, Disaster Risk Reduction and Emergency Preparedness and Response, with a special focus on food security and nutrition in different countries in Latin America.

LANGUAGES

Italian: mother tongue
English: fluent (C2)
Spanish: fluent (C2)
French: basic (A2)

EDUCATION

- 2015 Istituto universitario di studi superiori- Pavia (Italy)
International Master Programme in Cooperation and Development
- 2013 University of Bologna (Italy)
Master degree in International and Diplomatic Affairs
- 2012 Pontificia Universidad Catolica de Chile (Chile)
Overseas Exchange Programme
- 2010 University of Bologna (Italy)
Bachelor degree in International and Diplomatic Affairs

EXPERIENCE

- 07.2020 CMCC Foundation- Centro Euro-Mediterraneo sui Cambiamenti Climatici (Milano, Italy)
Fundraiser/ Junior Scientific Manager
- 01.2020 United Nations World Food Programme (Bogotá, Colombia)
Resilience and climate change Programme Officer
- 06.2020
- Manage Adaptation Fund multimillion binational project at the Colombia-Ecuador border: project and grant management, supervision of staff, elaboration of reports, liaise with government ministries, local governments, community leaders and WFP staff (Ecuador, regional office and HQ);
 - Provide technical assistance to WFP Field offices in the design and implementation of resilience, climate change and livelihoods projects;
 - In collaboration with the Resilience and livelihoods team leader, manage and follow up resilience and climate change projects under activity 9 of Country Strategic Plan (CSP) in Colombia;
 - Support the Resilience and livelihoods team leader in the elaboration of new project proposals on resilience, climate change and livelihoods;
 - Liaise with national and local key stakeholders, such as the Ministry of Environment and local environment corporations, to position WFP as a key actor on resilience and climate change;
 - Advise WFP Colombia high-level management team in climate change negotiation tables at national and international level;
 - Design and implement a capacity strengthening strategy on resilience and climate change for the Country Office.
- 01.2018 United Nations World Food Programme (Bogotá, Colombia)
Binational Project Manager | Resilience, Adaptation to Climate change and Disaster preparedness
- 12.2019
- Manage Adaptation Fund multimillion binational project at the Colombia-Ecuador border: project and grant management, supervision of staff, elaboration of reports, liaise with government ministries, local governments, community leaders and WFP staff (Ecuador, regional office and HQ);
 - Act as resilience and climate change expert in the Country Office: provide technical assistance to Field offices in the design and implementation of resilience, climate change and livelihoods projects and follow up their implementation;
 - Advise WFP Colombia high-level management team in climate change negotiation tables at national and international level (COP25);
 - Contribute to resource mobilization and elaboration of reports (USAID, ECHO, UN);
 - Act as focal person for the Italian agency of international cooperation (AICS).
- 01.2017 United Nations World Food Programme (Bogotá, Colombia)
Emergency Preparedness and Response & Disaster Risk Reduction UN Fellow
- 12.2017
- Elaborate and manage IR-PREP project for emergency preparedness actions at the border with Venezuela;
 - Coordinate a food security and nutrition analysis of migrant population from Venezuela with the use of innovative technologies (drones);
 - Act as focal person for UN working group for mixed migration from Venezuela;
 - Provide technical assistance in Disaster Risk Reduction to Country Office and Sub-offices;
 - Actively participate in the Interagency response mission to the landslide emergency in Mocoa: participate in the MIRA (Multisector Initial Response Assessment) and carry out an Emergency Food Security and Nutrition analysis.
- 10.2015 COOPI- Cooperazione Internazionale (Lima, Perú)
Junior Project Manager
- 12.2016
- Manage USAID/OFDA Disaster risk reduction project in the district of Rimac: project and grant management, supervision of staff, elaboration of reports, liaise with local authorities and neighbourhood leaders;
 - Act as provisional Head of Mission;
 - Actively participate in the Rimac Emergency Operational Committee in the Cantagallo emergency: coordinate a need assessment and census with the use of drones, elaborate a situational report and liaise with national and local authorities.
- 07.2014 COOPI- Cooperazione Internazionale (El Quetzal, Guatemala)
Project Manager Assistant
- 12.2014
- Support the implementation of DIPECHO project "Reducing disaster risk with a right-based approach in communities exposed to multi-hazards in Guatemala";
 - Manage ECHO response project to the coffee rust in the department of San Marcos as WFP cooperating partner: coordinate initial baseline and final evaluation, manage food and cash distributions, elaborate narrative reports.

CERTIFICATIONS

- 2017 United Nations World Food Programme
Urban cash transfer programming and livelihoods
- 2014 Humanitarian Country Team (Guatemala)
Basic course on the Sphere project
- 2014 FAO- Latin America and Caribbean
Risk management linked to food security in emergency

IT SKILLS

Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, Powerpoint)
Internet
Stata 11

PERSONAL SKILLS

Results-oriented
Problem solving
Proactive
Good team player, especially in intercultural environments
Work under pressure

REFERENCES

Irving Prado
Deputy Country Director- Operations
WFP Colombia Country Office
irving.prado@wfp.org

Uberto Pedferri
Latin America and Middle East Desk Officer
COOPI-Cooperazione Internazionale
pedferri@coopi.org

Saskia Carusi
External Relations Officer
UNDRR-United Nations Office for Disaster Risk Reduction
saskia.carusi@un.org
Saskia was my supervisor with COOPI in Guatemala.

VOLUNTEERING

- 03.2013 Province of Forli-Cesena (FC)
- 05.2013 Project Manager
"Harvesting legality and promoting informed citizenship"
Education and awareness-raising project on legality and antimafia in the education centres in the municipality of Forli.

PUBLICATIONS

UNEP/UN Women/DPPA/UNDP (June 2020)
Gender, Climate and Security. Sustaining inclusive peace on the frontlines of climate change

Q Code Magazine (16/02/2016)
Perù. Presidenziali, corruzione e spettri del passato

Q Code Magazine (28/10/2015)
L'uragano Morales in Guatemala

CONFERENCES AND EVENTS PRESENTATIONS

The link between climate change and food security and nutrition: the Adaptation Fund binational project at the Colombia-Ecuador border

2019 National Congress- Colombia Nutritionists association

Community-based adaptation for rural development in Colombia: best practices in Alta Montaña, Mojana and Nariño.

Side event at Climate change conference (COP25)- Madrid